Water Leaks Database for water supply system is designed to allow quick intervention, and detailed insight into the types and locations of leaks or failures in the water distribution system. Based on the analyzes which data base presented in diferent types of reports each user can easy determine the cause of the incident, and reduce the cost of their repair.

LEAK REPORT use at your own risk.

Autor accept no liability of any nature for losses (direct or indirect) incurred through the use of this program. Autor would appreciate feedback! Please send your comments and suggestions on e-mail:

dzevad.koldzo@waterloss.com.ba

- The program Calculator is free for personal use

- For use in professional purposes you must contact the author of the program.

Software is protected with passwords which are known only to the autor and should not be removed!!!

If you accept these terms you can download the latest version of LEAK REPORT one english language

ACCEPT   NOT ACCEPT