

Workshop "Systems for drinking water supply" has started in Bijelo Polje (Republic of Montenegro)

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 15 April 2014 07:12 - Last Updated Sunday, 08 January 2017 12:26

Workshop entitled: "Systems for drinking water supply" has started in Bijelo Polje municipality (Republic of Montenegro)

The workshop takes place under the IPA Cross Border cooperation project for Montenegro and Serbia.

During the workshop, which will last two days, will be held lectures on the following topics:

- Water losses and water balance,
- Classification of water losses,
- The reduction of Real Water loss,
- Water balance - the use of CalcuLEAKator software,
- Application of GIS in municipal infrastructure and
- Hydraulic modeling .

All lectures will be performed by experts from Bosnia and Herzegovina: Branko Vučijak and

Workshop "Systems for drinking water supply" has started in Bijelo Polje (Republic of Montenegro)

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 15 April 2014 07:12 - Last Updated Sunday, 08 January 2017 12:26

evad Koldzo.

Workshop "Systems for drinking water supply" has started in Bijelo Polje (Republic of Montenegro)

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 15 April 2014 07:12 - Last Updated Sunday, 08 January 2017 12:26

